The New Generation VARIORAIN Range of Hardhose Irrigators - brought to you by IB International - are a result of continuous investment and dedication to Research and Development to achieve an innovative interpretation of the traditional hosereel type of irrigation machine.

Technological improvements in design and construction have allowed us to provide a range of machines, innovative and unique in their genre, with lower pressure loss, greater ease of use and still versatile and robust needing minimum maintenance.

New Generation. New Technology. The Most Efficient Hardhose on the Market.
